

Pueblo Viejo

Carmel

If you like options when it comes to nachos, then Pueblo Viejo is the right place for you. The menu has two different nachos offered on the appetizer menu, as well as two options on the specials menu. With four different choices, you'll find combinations of tostadas and mixed vegetables and traditional nachos with carnitas or chorizo. Pair your choice with a drink from the extensive cocktail menu, featuring a multitude of fruity options in fun glasses. Make sure to ask for tajin on the rim!
